Kandima Maldives, the renowned hub for active lifestyles, is preparing to celebrate World Art Day 2024 with a renewed dedication to nurturing artistic talent locally and globally.

Renowned for its dynamic, eco-conscious ethos, Kandima presents a unique blend of authentic hospitality and exceptional island amenities. Set on an expansive 3-kilometer island, Kandima beckons families, couples, friends, solo adventurers, and honeymooners seeking a memorable escape. With a selection of chic overwater and beach villas, along with an array of recreational options, each visit ensures an unparalleled experience.

At the heart of Kandima's cultural offerings lies the KULA Art Studio, nestled on the shores of a natural lake, fostering artistic dialogue and creativity. This tranquil studio hosts regular exhibitions and art performances, providing a serene space for guests and artists to unleash their creativity. Kandima's commitment to the arts is further exemplified through the KULA Art Initiative, which contributes $1 from each room night to support local community projects, including funding for schools, artist supplies, scholarships, and educational programs.

culminating in the highly anticipated KULA Colour Run. Resident artist Haazima Husnee expresses her enthusiasm for the KULA initiative, highlighting its role in inspiring her artistic journey and fostering collaboration among a diverse group of talents.

In celebration of World Art Day, Kandima continues to promote the KULA Art Initiative on a global scale. Collaborating with international artists such as Angelo Milano and Momo, the resort will feature captivating murals throughout 2024, showcasing global talent and reinforcing its commitment to supporting art worldwide through the KULA goes Global movement.
